The prices are calculated per person/per night. The monthly payment is determined as a multiple of the price per person/night and the number of days in the given month.

The local residence fee may be added to the price of accommodation, according to the current legislation of the Czech Republic.

In the event that the resident ceases to be a student under a valid accommodation contract (besides the regular completion of studies by graduating from the degree program), the price of accommodation will be increased by 25 % until the next change of study status or expiry of the Accommodation Contract.

In the event that the resident violates the rules for termination of accommodation pursuant to Article III, paragraph 9, letter h) of the Accommodation Contract, the price of accommodation will be increased by 50 % for each day that exceeds the reported date of termination of accommodation.

In case of free capacity, between November and August, it is possible to accommodate only one student in a double room. In such cases, the price of accommodation is increased by 40 % for the second unoccupied bed.
